Chairperson
CWSC Board of Trustees

Greetings,

The last two years of navigating the pandemic has given C. Waldo Scott Center for H.O.P.E. opportunities to develop, refine, and sustain its mission and goals during the current health environment. The Scott Center continues to further refine and re-establish programs and services for our community while continuing to provide services.

The theme for this year's virtual fundraiser "Together We Can Give an Opportunity" is most appropriate for this health climate. The Scott Center continues to collaborate with other organizations to provide resources, programs, and services, which address education, life skills, health, and employment while ensuring its program participants, staff, and community were safe during the pandemic.

Our 2022 virtual fundraiser event provides the opportunity to hear how the Scott Center works with other organizations to serve our community. Your generous and much needed donations will help us to continue the work of the Scott Center while allowing us to provide scholarships to our graduating high school seniors. These scholarships do "Give an Opportunity" to a deserving senior.

Together, all of us can provide an opportunity to a youth, family, and community.

Concerned Citizens for Justice, Equality, and Equity, LLC

Hello, I am Reverend James W. Brown, Associate Minister of Gethsemane Baptist Church in Newport News, Virginia and the Founder of Concerned Citizens for Justice, Equality, and Equity, LLC.

My nickname growing up was "Peanut Brown" from down (757) the bottom. As a child, the Scott Center was instrumental in my growth and development. Today, it is still a place where young people can grow and develop into constructive and positive citizens.

Listen:
- The Scott Center is a safe place where young people are protected from bulling and harrassment.
-The Scott Center is a place where professional teachers work to stregthen children academicallly and socially.
-Most of all, the staff and Board members are there to give 100% of their time, attention, love, and guidance to help your child to become the best he or she can be.

Please join me in supporting the "Scott Center for H.O.P.E." with your support and financial contributions, "Together We Can Give An Opportunity" to help many others.

God Bless You,
Rev. James "Peanut" Brown
